Schedule D, Part III, Line 1 - The Society owns numerous works of art accumulated over the years. Consistent with financial statement presentations followed by other institutions, primarily museums, the Society excludes the value of its works of art from the statements of financial position. The works of art are held for educational and exhibition purposes.

Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 - The Detroit Zoo has a permanent art collection from artists in multiple mediums acquired for the purpose of interpreting the relationship of humans with animals through various cultures and times. The collection was begun with the understanding that art is a visual communication that records feelings, beliefs, and ideas which reflect the cultural context in which it was made, hence artist interpretations were chosen over literal depictions. In the Wildlife Interpretive Gallery, one contemporary piece is a transfer image of cave paintings done by the earliest known artists some 40,000 years ago. Michigan artists in the Wildlife Interpretive Gallery collection are: Rich Branstrom, Susie Colquitt, Laura Ford, Peter Hackett, Cathy Peet, and Ia Moua Yang. Other recognized artists include Larry Rivers and Alexis Rockman.

Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b - The Detroit Zoological Society collects donations for the Amazon Rainforest Adopt-A-School program on behalf of CONAPAC, a Peruvian NGO. The Detroit Zoo also holds funds for the Eastern Massasauga Rattlesnake Species Survival Plan organization and the Society staff are active members in this organization.

Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The Detroit Zoological Society (DZS) endowments were established to provide a stable source of funding to help underwrite the programs and facilities of the Detroit Zoo and Belle Isle Nature Center. Monies placed in endowments are invested, with interest, and only distributed as dictated by the Society's endowment governing policy. Funds may be established by donors within each endowment. A named fund requires a minimum investment of $100,000 and the revenue may be restricted by the donors. The endowments (minimum of $1 million) of the Detroit Zoological Society include the following: The Berman Academy for Humane Education Endowment: the Berman Academy for Humane Education Endowment was established September 13, 2001 by Madeleine and Mandell L. Berman. The purpose of the endowment is to support operational costs associated with humane education programs at the Detroit Zoo. The John S. and James L. Knight Fund: the Knight fund was established December 13, 1999 by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation. The purpose of the fund is to support research and education programs of the Detroit Zoological Society. The Society determined that it would be most beneficial as a component of the Humane Education Endowment. The Adelyn B. Devereaux Fund: The Devereaux fund was established December 28, 2001 through Mrs. Adelyn B. Devereaux's trust agreement. The purpose of the fund is to benefit the Detroit Zoological Society's endowment fund. The Society determined that it would be most beneficial as a component of the Humane Education Endowment. The Richard and Jane Manoogian Endowment for Wildlife Art and Interpretation: the Richard and Jane Manoogian Endowment for Wildlife Art and Interpretation was established May 6, 2002 by Richard A. Manoogian. The purpose of the endowment is to purchase and maintain works of art, including sculpture, at the Detroit Zoological Park. In addition, earnings will support educational programs and projects focusing on the interpretation of art that explores the relationship between humans and animals.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Federal Income Taxes - The Society has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization exempt from federal taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). The Society is a public charity by reason of being described in the Code Section 509(a)(2). The Society is exempt from federal income taxes except to the extent of income derived from unrelated business activities. Unrelated business income is not material to the financial statements. The Society completed an analysis of its tax positions, in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes, and determined that no amounts were required to be recognized in the financial statements at December 31, 2021 or 2020.

Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d - Other adjustments to audited financial statements include: donations to CONAPAC of $310,870, and direct fundraising expenses of $116,099, for total of $194,771.

Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d - Other adjustments to audited financial statements include: donations to CONAPAC of $310,870, and direct fundraising expenses of $116,099, for total of $194,771.

Form 990, Part I, Line 19 - The Detroit Zoological Society had a number of extraordinary items take place in both 2020 and 2021, due to volatility and unpredictability caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. From March 2020 through June 2020, the Detroit Zoo was closed for daily visitation. Upon reopening, it operated with severe capacity restrictions. This caused 2020 revenues to plummet by 34% from 2019, even though the costs associated with animal care, life support systems, and animal habitat maintenance remained unchanged and could not be ignored. Entering 2021, the DZS developed a very conservative projection for visitation, which led to a budget with reduced revenue and tightly-controlled expenses. Attendance restrictions were slowly loosened throughout the year as the pandemic unfolded, resulting in higher-than-expected operating revenues. At the same time, expenses continued to be closely monitored due to lingering uncertainties about the pandemic and its impact. Additionally, the DZS was fortunate to qualify for two federal government programs that provided much-needed financial stability during the pandemic: the Payroll Protection Program and Shuttered Venue Operators Grant program. These extraordinary, one-time programs provided $11.6 million in revenue that was recorded in the 2021 Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6 - Paying Detroit Zoological Society members receive benefits including free admission to the Detroit Zoo, discounted admission to participating zoos and aquariums across the country, 10% discount in the gift shop, and a tax deduction to the extent allowed by law. Classes of memberships include the following: individual ($68/$88), single parent ($109), family/grandparent ($119), supporter ($205), and renaissance circle ($1,500+). In addition to the benefits received by the paying members, the members also have certain voting and decision-making rights. This includes the ability to attend the annual meeting and call special meetings. The annual meeting of the members is held on a date fixed by the Board of Directors or by the Executive Committee within the second quarter of each fiscal year. Special meetings of the members may also be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, a majority of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Committee, or by not less than one-tenth of the members. At each meeting of the members of the Society, each member shall be entitled to cast one vote on each matter submitted for membership action; this vote may be by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. No person may act as a proxy unless such person is a member of the Society. All privileges of membership (other than voting) are subject to such rules and regulations that may be adopted by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - The Detroit Zoological Society Board governs, develops policies and strategy and oversees all Society operations and activities. The committee shall be appointed by the Board Chairperson and ratified by the Board of Trustees. The Committee shall consist of at least five persons, including the Board Chairperson, the Director/Chief Executive Officer and at least two other board members. The chairperson of the committee shall be a member of the Board of Trustees. 1. The Governance and Nominating Committee will be responsible for the recruitment, selection, nominating, orientation and evaluation of board members of the Detroit Zoological Society. 2. Maintain an awareness of the needs of the board and/or its affiliate organizations for executive and board talents. 3. Plan board members' development, including recruitment, orientation, education, and evaluation of their effectiveness. 4. Identify and select candidates for committees of the board using criteria for board service as a guide. 5. Provide an orientation program conducted by management for new board members. 6. Periodically conduct an assessment to determine board educational needs. The Director/Chief Executive Officer will be responsible for researching and updating the committee on educational opportunities. 7. Conduct board self-evaluations. 8. Review the performance of board members prior to re-appointment. 9. Confirm compliance with the DZS conflict of interest policy. 10. Meet quarterly, or as needed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b - See explanation for Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - A draft of the IRS Form 990 is prepared by the Detroit Zoological Society's finance department under the direction of the Chief Financial Officer. This draft is sent to the audit firm where a review is performed by the tax team to ensure accuracy and completeness. After this review a draft is then provided to the Chief Executive Officer and Audit Committee for review. A regular meeting of the Audit Committee is held to discuss the form and address any questions that may result during the Audit Committee's review of the form. The Audit Committee Chair informs the CEO and CFO that the Form is to be made available to all Board Members and then can be filed with the IRS on behalf of the organization. A board resolution is not required in order for the Form 990 to be filed. This final draft is filed with the IRS and State government agencies

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The Conflict of Interest Policy is distributed annually to key employees and board members. Key employees are required to read the policy and complete a questionnaire annually, which is maintained by the Human Resources Department. Board members are given a copy at the annual board retreat, where they are asked to read the policy and complete the questionnaire and return it to the Chief Executive Officer's administrative assistant. If a questionnaire is returned with a potential conflict, it is brought to the Board Chair and/or the Chief Executive Officer of the Society, who shall determine whether a conflict exists and is material. If the matters are material, the potential conflict would be brought to the attention of the Board. The Board Chair and/or the Chief Executive Officer, with the Board, will determine whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair and reasonable to the Society. The decision of the Board Chair and/or the Chief Executive Officer of the Society on these matters will rest in their sole discretion, and their concern must be the welfare of the Society and the advancement of its purpose.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Detroit Zoological Society uses the AZA salary survey and engages an independent consultant to prepare a competitive salary analysis of non-union, salaried positions and develop salary structures and ranges for these positions. Job grades and salary ranges, including minimum, midpoint and maximum, were established for each position. Upon determining a wage for a new hire, an individual's salary is set within the range considering the market value of the position (based on the role's primary responsibilities), individual characteristics (experience, performance, etc.) and internal value. Salary is not to be lower than the minimum established wage of the pay grade and range. If a new hire is to be brought in higher than the established midpoint wage of the pay grade and range, it must be approved by Human Resources and a member of the Executive Leadership Team. A salary is not to exceed the established maximum wage of the pay grade and range. Salary guidelines and wages are reviewed by the Compensation Committee of the Board and approval by the Committee is documented in meeting minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The financial statements, governing documents, and conflict of interest policy are available to the public upon written request.

Form 990, Part VII, Section B, Line 1(C) - The DZS was unable to separate the cost of services from the cost of materials for certain vendors in this list. Please note that the totals in this section may include services and materials.

Form 990, Part IX, Line 11g - Contracted/Construction Services = 4,533,853 General Labor = 1,794,458 Skilled Labor = 1,473,940 Professional Services = 651,527 Janitorial Services = 649,210 Service Fees = 443,204 Event Entertainment + Other = 106,086
